Robert Le Gay Brereton Memorial Prize 2016

Closing date for applications: Friday 2 September 2016

The Art Gallery of New South Wales awards an annual prize of $2000 to an art student exhibiting skill and promise in the area of draughtsmanship.

Applicants are required to submit:

- two life figure drawings, one of each sex
- one study of hands and feet
- one or two studies of a head
- one, or not more than two, sketchbooks or portfolios containing any subjects

Applicants are asked at first instance to send images of their entries in PowerPoint format. Shortlisted applicants will then be required to submit original works to the Gallery for final judging.

The prize

The prize is for an amount of $2000 awarded to an art student exhibiting skill and promise in the area of draughtsmanship.

Entry requirements

1. The scholarship is open to Australian students currently enrolled in an undergraduate or postgraduate degree in fine or visual arts or an equivalent studio degree.
2. Applicants must submit JPEG images of the following:
   - Two life figure drawings, one of each sex
   - One study of hands and feet
   - One or two studies of a head
   - Up to twelve images of sketchbook or portfolio pages containing any subjects.

   The images must be formatted into a PowerPoint presentation and saved to a CD or USB drive.
   - Format as a landscape presentation, with each slide featuring one image, centred on a white background with the caption underneath (title, date, medium and size).
   - Make the first slide your name only. A downloadable PowerPoint template is available for your reference on the website. Save your presentation in the following format: 'SURNAME_Firstname_2016'
3. Shortlisted applicants are required to deliver the original drawings as well as one or two sketchbooks or portfolios to the Gallery for final judging. Applicants are required to deliver and collect works at their own cost.
4. All applicants must complete the application form and include a current CV, as well as a statutory declaration that the work is their own.

Please post your completed application form, CD or USB drive, statutory declaration and current CV by 5pm Friday 2 September 2016 to:
