The Critics' Choice Art and Music Cruise

MUNICH – MAIN AND RHINE – AMSTERDAM | 19 June – 04 July 2016 (16 days)

with Christopher Allen, John McDonald and Christopher Lawrence

Tour leaders

Christopher Allen

Dr Christopher Allen is an art critic and historian who graduated from the University of Sydney, has worked at the Collège de France in Paris and the National Art School, and is currently Senior Master in Academic Extension at Sydney Grammar School.

He is the author of Art in Australia from Colonization to Postmodernism (London, Thames and Hudson, 1997), French Painting in the Golden Age (London, Thames and Hudson, 2003), and several other books. His most recent book, Jeffrey Smart: Unpublished Paintings 1940-2007 (Melbourne, Australian Galleries) was published in April 2008. He was art critic of The Australian Financial Review from 2005-2008, and since 2008 has been national art critic for The Australian.

John McDonald

John McDonald is best known as the art critic of the Sydney Morning Herald. He is a former Head of Australian Art at the National Gallery of Australia; a busy lecturer; author of several books, most notably, Art of Australia: From Exploration to Federation, and Studio: Australian Artists on the Nature of Creativity. John has a longstanding interest in China – which he has been visiting since 1989 – and has contributed the major essay to the catalogue for Sydney's White Rabbit Gallery. Since 2011 he has also been the regular film critic for The Australian Financial Review. His work may be found at www.johnmcdonald.net.au

Christopher Lawrence

Dr Christopher Lawrence is best known as presenter of the weekday 'Mornings' program on ABC Classic FM. As a recording producer, he has been awarded an International Emmy for Performing Arts, three ARIA (Australian Record Industry Association) Awards, and a Churchill Fellowship.

Christopher has published several books, worked as a commentator for Proms telecasts for the BBC, and contributed articles and critiques to publications in Australia and the UK. In 1999 Christopher was awarded an Honorary Doctorate in Communications by the University of Central Queensland for his career in broadcasting.

The Critics' Choice Art and Music Cruise

MUNICH – MAIN AND RHINE – AMSTERDAM | 19 June – 04 July 2016 (16 days)

with Christopher Allen, John McDonald and Christopher Lawrence

Beginning and ending in the great cultural capitals of Munich and Amsterdam, enjoy a relaxing river cruise aboard the Amadeus Elegant from Bavaria to the Netherlands along the Main and Rhine Rivers, stopping at the charming cities of Nuremberg, Bamberg, Würzburg, Bonn and Cologne.

By day immerse yourself in some of Europe's finest art collections; in the evening enjoy concerts, recitals and opera in a variety of venues; on board, unpack for a week, sit back, relax and marvel at the constantly changing panorama.

To guide you on this cultural journey will be Australia's two foremost art critics, Christopher Allen and John McDonald, and Australia's favourite classical music presenter, Christopher Lawrence.

At a glance

- 5-day stays in Munich and Amsterdam
- 7-night luxury cruise on Amadeus Elegant
- Guided visits to the great art collections of Munich, Nuremberg, Würzburg, Bonn, Cologne and Amsterdam
- 6 musical performances including symphony concerts, chamber recitals and operas
- A program of illustrated art lectures and musical introductions
- Optional post-tour to Belgium (Antwerp, Bruges, Ghent and Brussels)

Itinerary

Sat 18 Jun Departure Australia

Suggested departure from Australia on Qantas/Emirates flights to Munich (via Dubai).

Sun 19 Jun Arrive Munich

Early afternoon arrival in Munich and transfer to your hotel.

This evening, join your tour leaders and fellow art and music lovers for a welcome briefing, introduction to Munich's museums and cocktail reception. R

Mon 20 Jun Munich

The third largest city in Germany (after Berlin and Hamburg), Munich is a centre of commerce, tourism and the arts. The city is home to numerous major museums and reminders of its historical grandeur such as the Royal Palace and the National Theatre. During a morning introduction tour you will see the Olympic Grounds, stop at BMW World and pass through the former artists' quarter of Schwabing.

After a typical Bavarian lunch, begin your exploration of Munich's museums with a visit to the Neue Pinakothek which houses an outstanding collection of European art and sculpture from the late 18th to the beginning of the 20th century. Along with a special focus on German art of the 19th century, there are also major works of French Impressionism as well as works by English, French and Spanish portrait and landscape artists.

Evening at leisure. B L

Tue 21 Jun Munich

Following a talk on tonight's opera, ballet or concert, continue your discovery of Munich's museums with a visit to the Pinakothek der Moderne. Designed by architect Stephan Braunfels, the building is remarkable for its open and spacious architecture. Key works by major modernists such as Beckmann, Kandinsky, Klee, Magritte and Picasso form the core of the collection, along with works by Bacon, Baselitz, Beuys, Judd, de Kooning, Polke, Twombly and Warhol, and 21st century contemporary art.

Tonight, enjoy a chamber music recital at the Residenz or similar venue. Programmes are announced mid-2015. B

Wed 22 Jun Munich

This morning you have a choice of tours: join Christopher Allen for a visit to the Glyptothek, commissioned by the Bavarian King Ludwig I to house his collection of Greek and Roman sculptures; join John McDonald for a visit to the recently reopened (2013) Lenbachhaus which focuses on modern and contemporary Munich painters; or join Christopher Lawrence for a backstage tour of the National Theatre, home of the Bavarian State Opera and Ballet.

A booking form for these optional tours will be forwarded approximately 3 months prior to tour commencement.

Afternoon at leisure.

Tonight, enjoy a concert by one of Munich's famous orchestras such as the Bavarian Radio Symphony Orchestra, Munich Symphony or the Munich Philharmonic Orchestra (at the Gasteig). Programmes are announced mid-2015. B

Thu 23 Jun Munich – Nuremberg (Embarkation)

After a morning at leisure to further explore Munich on your own, transfer by coach to Nuremberg (170 km, 3-4 hr, including stop en route). After embarkation on Amadeus Elegant (your 'floating hotel' for the next seven nights) join your tour leaders for a talk on tomorrow's museums, followed by dinner on board. B D

Fri 24 Jun Nuremberg

Depart the ship for a full day exploration of Nuremberg. A city of emperors and princes, inventors and scholars, Nuremberg has mirrored German history since the Middle Ages.

The morning visit the Germanic National Museum which offers an extensive overview of German history, culture and art from prehistoric times to the present day. Works by nearly every major German artist, including Dürer, are housed in the museum.

After a break for lunch on your own, choose from a selection of tours: join Christopher Allen for an afternoon walk along the so-called 'Historical Mile' from the Imperial Castle to the Market Square, through the heart of the old city; join Christopher Lawrence for a visit to the Documentation Centre of the notorious Nazi Party Rally Grounds, which focuses on how the party came to be and the causes for the National Socialist's rule of terror; or join John McDonald for a visit to the New Museum for Art and Design, famed for its striking contemporary architecture as much as its contents.

This evening Amadeus Elegant departs the harbour of Nuremberg at 5.00 pm for five days' journey along the Main and Rhine Rivers. Join the Captain and crew for a 'Welcome Aboard' Reception before dinner. B D

Sat 25 Jun Bamberg

Arrive in the early morning in Bamberg (6.00 am). During a morning tour, visit the Cathedral, and see Der Bamberger Reiter, considered the first monumental sculpture since antiquity.

Also see the Old Court, New Residence and Rose Garden, the Old Town Hall and 'Little Venice'. Adding to the romantic atmosphere evident at every turn is the River Regnitz, with its many pretty bridges. Depart from Bamberg at 12.00 noon. B L D

Sun 26 Jun

Würzburg

08.30 am arrive in Würzburg – a vibrant university town, former royal seat, major cultural hub, and centre of the Franken wine-growing region. Begin with a morning tour of the Old Town followed by a visit to the Marienberg Fortress, the imposing Late Medieval and Renaissance castle of the Marienberg bishops, and home of the Mainfränkisches Museum of Franconian art.

After lunch, visit the magnificent Würzburg Residence Palace, former residence of the prince bishops of Würzburg and one of Europe's foremost Baroque ensembles. It houses Tiepolo's splendid mid-18th century allegorical paintings above the grand baroque staircase.

After the tour enjoy a concert by the Baroque Orchestra of the University of Music, Würzburg in the elegant Baroque hall of the Juliusspital. The concert will feature the music of Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach, his father Johan Sebastian Bach and godfather Georg Philipp Telemann.

Depart from Würzburg at 8.00 pm. B L D

Mon 27 Jun

Wertheim – Miltenberg

Morning arrival (9.00 am) in the delightful small town of Wertheim. Following a short walking tour of the town and visit to the castle (15th – 17th centuries), continue overland by coach and reboard the ship (1.30 pm) in Miltenberg, a well-preserved medieval town famous for its timber-framed buildings.

During the afternoon and evening sit back, relax and enjoy the constantly changing panorama as Amadeus Elegant continues along the scenic Main River. B L D

Tue 28 Jun

Sailing – Bonn

Today begins with a journey through the 'Lorelei Passage', the narrowest and most scenic part of the Rhine River between Switzerland and the North Sea. 'Lorelei' refers to a mighty slate rock that soars around 120 metres above the waterline, and is the most prominent feature of the Rhine Gorge, a 65 km section of the river between Bingen and Koblenz.

Arrive mid-afternoon (3.00 pm) in Bonn to visit the Bonn Art Museum. An architectural masterpiece by Axel Schultes, the Bonn Art Museum houses an impressive collection of works by August Macke and other Rhenish expressionists; an extensive collection of German post-war art ranging from Baselitz and Beuys to Richter and Rüdiger; and constantly changing temporary exhibitions.

This evening, enjoy a chamber music recital by musicians of the Bonn Beethoven Orchestra (programme to be announced). B L D

Wed 29 Jun Cologne

Arrive in the early morning (04.00 am) in Cologne – Germany's fourth largest city and the major cultural centre of the Rhineland. The city's skyline is dominated by the famous Cologne Cathedral, whilst the University of Cologne is one of Europe's oldest and largest.

Following a talk on the museums of Cologne, begin your exploration of the city's astonishing collection of museums with a morning visit to the Ludwig Museum of modern art, focusing on art of the 20th century.

This afternoon is at leisure to explore other major museums of Cologne, such as the Wallraf-Richartz-Museum (European Old Masters) or Käthe-Kollwitz Museum with one of the largest collections of works by German artists (1867–1945).

The ship departs Cologne at 4.00 pm. Following a talk on Frans Hals and Haarlem, celebrate your last night on board Amadeus Elegant with the Captain's Farewell Dinner. B L D

Thu 30 Jun Arrival Amsterdam (Haarlem)

Morning arrival (08.00 am) in Amsterdam.

After disembarkation, drive out of Amsterdam to Haarlem. Visit Frans Hals Museum which, in addition to the works of 17th-century portrait painter Frans Hals, also houses works by other Dutch masters.

After a break for lunch on your own in the charming medieval town of Haarlem, transfer mid-afternoon to Amsterdam and check in to your hotel for an evening at leisure.

Tonight you have the option to attend a performance of Tchaikovsky's The Queen of Spades at the Dutch National Opera. Under the musical direction of Mariss Jansons, and the stage direction of Stefan Herheim, the performance features a fine Russian cast including Misha Didyk as Hermann, Svetlana Ignatovich as Lisa, Larissa Diadkova as the Countess, Vladimir Stoyanov as Prince Yeletsky and Alexey Markov as Count Tomsy (not included in tour price, additional cost applies). B

Fri 01 Jul Amsterdam

Amsterdam. Admire the traditional 17th century merchants' houses, pass under numerous bridges and observe the daily life of houseboats along the canals.

Continue with a visit to the world-renowned Rijksmuseum which offers a representative overview of Dutch art and history from the Middle Ages onwards, and of major aspects of European and Asian art. The Rijksmuseum reopened in 2013 following a decade-long renovation. Mid-afternoon return to the hotel.

Following an early dinner, attend a concert at the Dutch National Opera, featuring Dutch soprano Eva-Maria Westbroek accompanied by the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Jaap van Zweden. B D

Sat 02 Jul Amsterdam

This morning, choose from a selection of tours: join John McDonald for a visit to the Stedelijk Museum, Amsterdam's museum of modern and contemporary art which re-opened in 2012 after an eight-year renovation and extension; join Christopher Allen for a tour of the Van Gogh Museum, featuring the world's largest collection of works by Vincent van Gogh (1853-1890) and his contemporaries; or join Christopher Lawrence for a fascinating 'behind the scenes' tour of the Royal Concertgebouw, Amsterdam's historic (1881) and elegant concert hall, famed for its acoustics and home of the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra.

Following an afternoon at leisure, tonight attend a concert at the Royal Concertgebouw (programme announced mid-2015). B

Sun 03 Jul Amsterdam (The Hague)

Enjoy another excursion out of Amsterdam to The Hague – also known as the 'Royal City by the Sea'. In the morning visit the newly re-opened (2014) Royal Picture Gallery Mauritshuis which contains works by Dutch old masters, including Johannes Vermeer (Girl with a Pearl Earring and View of Delft) and Rembrandt van Rijn (The Anatomy Lesson of Dr Nicolaes Tulp), and Andy Warhol (Queen Beatrix).

After a special farewell lunch, visit the Gemeentemuseum, which boasts an especially large collection of Mondrians, showcasing the entire career of this painter known for his works with red, blue and yellow shapes. Late afternoon return to Amsterdam. B L

Mon 04 Jul Depart Amsterdam

Tour arrangements conclude after breakfast.

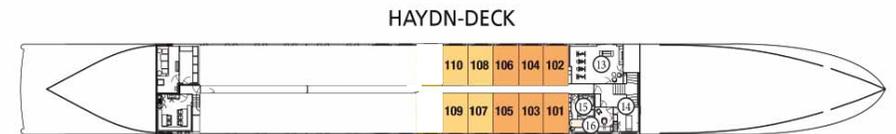

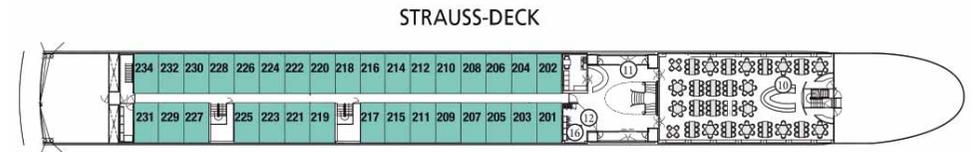

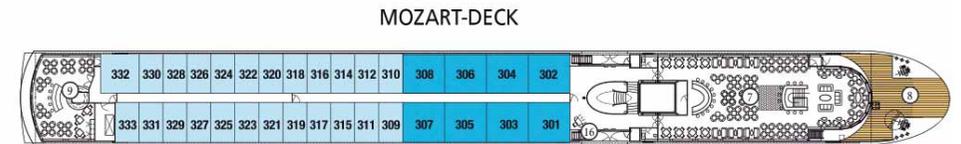

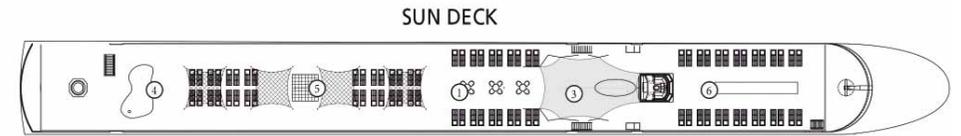

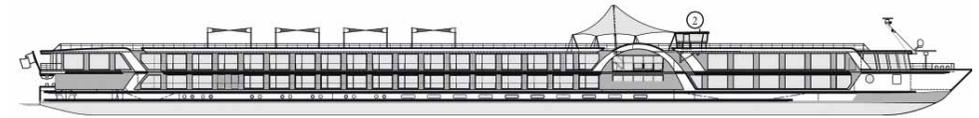

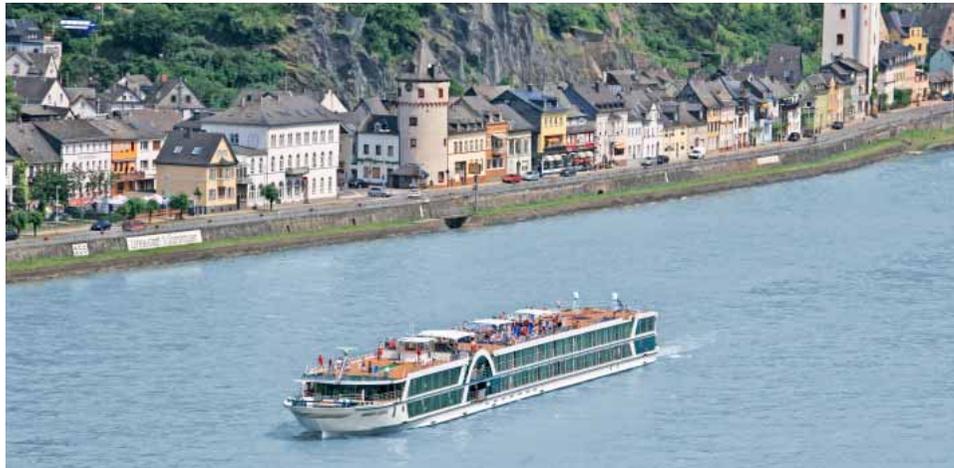

If returning to Australia today, transfer to Amsterdam Schiphol Airport for mid-afternoon departure on Emirates/Qantas flights. B

Tue 05 Jul Arrive Australia

Evening arrival in Australia.

Post-tour: Antwerp, Bruges and Brussels

with John McDonald | 04 – 09 July 2015 (5 days)

Mon 04 Jul Amsterdam – Antwerp

After a late morning check-out, depart Amsterdam for a leisurely day's drive to Antwerp (total 150 km). On the way, stop in Delft, known for its Delft Blue pottery, its historic ties with the Dutch royal house and as the home of the painter Johannes Vermeer (1632-1675).

After a break for lunch on your own, continue to Antwerp. Located on the banks of the river Scheldt and once Europe's largest port, Antwerp is renowned as being the diamond capital of the world.

This evening, join John for a talk on Antwerp and Rubens, followed by dinner. D

Tue 05 Jul Antwerp – Bruges

This morning begins with a visit to the towering Cathedral of Our Lady, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture and the largest church in the Benelux, sheltering four magnificent Rubens altarpieces. Continue to Rubens' house, which not only houses some of the painter's greatest works but also gives an insight into the lifestyle of high class society in the 17th century.

After a break for lunch on your own, continue to Bruges (90 km, approx. 2 hr). This evening, join John for talk on the museums of Bruges followed by dinner at a local restaurant. B D

Wed 06 Jul Bruges

Thanks to its port this splendid medieval city was at one time a major commercial city. During a morning walking and canal tour of the historic centre, learn about the 'rise, fall and resurrection' of Bruges, a city that glittered in Northern Europe with as much power and panache as Venice did in the Mediterranean World.

After a break for lunch on your own, visit the Hans Memling Museum, housed in a medieval hospital, and the Groeninge Museum with its impressive collection of works by van Eyck. B

Thu 07 Jul Bruges – Ghent – Brussels

Depart Bruges for a leisurely day's drive to Brussels via Ghent (total 100 km). In Ghent, see the 13th- to 15th-century Church of St Nicholas, one of the most beautiful examples of the Scheldt Gothic style – an impressive mixture of Romanesque and Flemish styles. Visit the Cathedral of St Bavo, where you will find the famous altarpiece The Adoration of the Mystic Lamb painted in 1432 by Flemish artist Jan van Eyck.

After a break for lunch on your own continue to Brussels with an orientation tour on arrival. After check-in at your hotel, take a walk to the Grand Place, the historic central square of Brussels surrounded by opulent Baroque and Gothic guild houses, the Town Hall and the Breadhouse. Return to your hotel for dinner. B D

Fri 08 Jul Brussels

Following a talk on today's museums, spend the morning at Belgium's Royal Museums of Fine Arts which trace the history of the visual arts – painting, sculpture and drawing – from the 15th to the 21st centuries. Later, visit the Magritte Collection, housed in the five-level neo-classical Hotel Altenloh, dedicated to the world of the Belgian surrealist artist, René Magritte.

Following an afternoon at leisure, celebrate the conclusion of the tour with a special farewell dinner. B D

Sat 09 Jul Depart Brussels

Tour arrangements conclude after breakfast.

If returning to Australia today, depart Brussels on mid-afternoon Emirates/Qantas flights. B

HOW TO BOOK

Complete, sign and return the Booking Form available from Renaissance Tours with your deposit and page one of your passport.

DEPOSIT / FINAL PAYMENTS

Your deposit is due at the time of booking and is used to pay hotel, airline, performance tickets and/or other deposits. It is non-refundable in the event of your cancellation.

Final payment is due 60 days before departure. Failure to make the final payment by the due date may result in cancellation of your booking and loss of deposit.

Payment by cash, cheque, direct deposit, American Express, MasterCard and Visa is accepted. 1.5% service charge applies to payment made by MasterCard and Visa. 3% service charge applies to payment made by American Express.

Payments for some international airfares can be made by credit card without a service fee. Please check for details.

CANCELLATION & REFUNDS

a) Cancellation by You – Cancellation charges will be applied as shown below, calculated from the day written notification is received by Renaissance Tours. In addition to cancellation fees for tours operated by Renaissance Tours as shown below, airlines, hotels and other third parties may impose up to 100% cancellation charges.

|-------------------|--------------------|
| 60 days or more | Forfeit of deposit |
| 59 – 45 days | 25% of tour cost |
| 44 – 31 days | 50% of tour cost |
| 30 – 15 days | 75% of tour cost |
| Less than 15 days | 100% of tour cost |

The above cancellation charges include applicable GST.

In addition to the above, cancellation charges may apply for additional arrangements booked by Renaissance Tours, such as air tickets, hotels and travel insurance premium. If the reason for cancellation is covered by the insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

b) Cancellation by Us – We reserve the right to cancel a tour for any reason (such as failure to reach minimum tour participant numbers). Except for force majeure, we will not cancel a tour less than 60 days before departure. No further compensation will be paid in the event of cancellation by Renaissance Tours. A full refund of monies paid for tour costs will be the full extent of our liability.

Cancellation and/or amendment fees may apply for additional travel arrangements booked by Renaissance Tours.

PASSPORTS, VISAS AND VACCINATIONS

All travellers must be in a possession of a valid passport – most countries require a 6-month validity from your date of entry or exit. For some countries (e.g. China, Vietnam, India, Russia), visas are included in the tour cost and will be arranged by Renaissance Tours prior to travel. For other countries, it is your responsibility to ensure you have the appropriate visa(s).

You are also responsible for obtaining all necessary inoculations and preventative medicines as may be required for the duration of the tour.

TOUR PRICES

Prices quoted in our tour information are based on exchange rates, cost of services and applicable taxes at the time of publication. Prices may be subject to change in the event of significant currency fluctuations or the introduction of new taxes, up until final payment is received.

In the event of a price increase, whether because of a currency fluctuation, increase in taxes or a correction in advertised prices, we will advise you and you have the option of accepting the amended prices, inclusions and booking conditions or withdrawing from the tour and receiving a full refund of all monies paid.

Once final payment is received, all prices will be guaranteed and no surcharges will apply.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is a condition of travel that you are covered by comprehensive travel insurance for international tours. Your travel insurance can be arranged by Renaissance Tours.

FITNESS AND PARTICIPATION

Most of our tours require a MODERATE level of fitness.

However, in certain destinations (e.g. Silk Road, Central Asia, Outback Australia, tropical destinations) or in certain seasons (e.g. mid-winter, mid-summer) or because of the nature of travel (e.g. remote rail), certain tours will require an ABOVE AVERAGE or CHALLENGING level of fitness.

If you (or we) have any doubts about your level of fitness, you may be required to have a doctor's appraisal. This would require your doctor to read the itinerary of your chosen tour, including the fitness level, and provide you (and us) with a written confirmation of your ability to participate.

MODERATE

For the overall benefit of the group, all tour members must possess a moderate level of mobility, including the ability to:

- negotiate airports and railway stations without wheelchair assistance
- use combined shower/bath facilities (it is impossible to guarantee walk-in shower facilities)
- undertake walking tour of 1–2 hours duration, including using stairs, walking over cobblestones and other uneven surfaces
- stand for long periods in museums and other sites
- embark / disembark coaches, trains and other methods of transportation without assistance
- handle your own luggage

ABOVE AVERAGE

In addition to the above, tour members must also be able to:

- undertake walking tours of 2–3 hours
- climb staircases of 100 or more steps

CHALLENGING

In addition to the above, tour members must also be able to:

- handle extremes of temperature (e.g. below 0 or above 35 degrees)
- handle extremes of altitudes (e.g. 4000 metres and above).

You can find the full terms & conditions at www.renaissancecettours.com.au/booking-conditions or we would be happy to post you a copy on request.
