Thu 12 May

Barcelona

Join Brian for a talk about the Catalan architect, Antoni Gaudi, and celebrated Spanish artists Pablo Picasso, Salvador Dali and Joan Miró.

The focus today is on Antoni Gaudi (1852-1926), Spain's most celebrated architect. Begin the day with a coach trip to Park Guell, to explore an extraordinary park designed by Gaudi as a modern garden suburb for the bourgeoisies.

On a walking tour of Barcelona, discover remarkable Art Nouveau buildings. Gaudi was the leading exponent of this movement, known in Catalonia as Modernisme, which flourished from 1854 until the 1880s, and encompassed virtually all the arts. Visit his Casa Milà, known locally as La Pedrera (Catalan for quarry) and Casa Batlló.

After lunch (at leisure) visit Gaudi's greatest work, the massive unfinished Temple Expiatori de la Sagrada Família, a Catholic church under construction since 1882. B

Fri 13 May Barcelona – Figueres – Girona – Barcelona

Enjoy a full day coach journey to the north east of Catalonia, to the province of Girona. Our destination is Figueres, the birthplace of leading surrealist artist, Salvador Dalí (1904-1989). Visit the Teatre-Museu Gala Salvador Dalí, a large museum designed by Dalí himself which houses his astonishing work and in which the late artist and his wife, Gala, are buried.

Return via the Provincial Capital of Girona and enjoy a Basque lunch at one of the more popular restaurants frequented by locals.

After lunch explore the city's tight huddle of ancient arcades, grand churches, climbing cobbled streets, medieval baths and Catalonia's most extensive and best preserved Call (medieval Jewish quarter), all enclosed by defensive walls. B GL

Sat 14 May

Barcelona

Our day begins with a visit to the renowned Picasso Museum, dedicated to the towering genius of twentieth century art, Pablo Picasso (1881-1973). This modern museum is housed in five Catalan-Gothic-style palazzos dating from the 13th and 14th centuries, located at the edge of the Barri Gòtic district.

Afternoon is free to further explore Barcelona.

Tonight you may wish to attend a concert at the Palau de la Música, an exceptional Art Nouveau theatre (optional, not included in tour cost). B

Sun 15 May

Barcelona – Zaragoza

Early morning departure from Barcelona for Zaragoza. On the journey, call into the township of Fuentetodos to visit Casa Museo de Goya, the modest house in which the great Spanish painter Francisco de Goya (1746-1828) was born. Visit the Museo de Grabados next door and view a presentation of his celebrated etchings.

After lunch at leisure in Fuendetodos (at own expense), continue to Zaragoza and check in to the hotel.

Enjoy a walking tour to visit the city's monumental cathedral. The domes of the Basílica del Pilar, dominate Zaragoza on the right bank of the River Ebro. Successive sanctuaries on this site have enshrined the miraculous Pillar (Pilar), above which the Virgin was believed to have appeared. The present building dates from 1677 and was designed by Francisco Herrera the Younger. From the late 18th century, there are ceiling frescos painted by Goya as a young artist.

The nearby La Seo, or the Cathedral of Zaragoza (remarkable for its size and architectural influences reflecting Gothic, Mudejar and Baroque styles) can be visited at your leisure. B D

Mon 16 May Zaragoza – Pamplona

Today en-route to Pamplona, visit the Romanesque Church of Santa María de Eunate, an important 12th century church. Here begin a walk (optional) for a short distance along the Camino to Puente La Reina, to a picturesque medieval town named after its historic Queen's Bridge, where two main pilgrim routes converge. Walk approximately 2.5 km to meet the coach and return to Pamplona.

The capital of Navarre – and the former capital of the fiercely independent Kingdom of Navarre – Pamplona is famous for the running of the bulls during the San Fermín religious festival, held annually in July. It has a fascinating history beginning with its reputed establishment as a military camp for the great Roman general Pompey, in 75-74 BC, after whom it takes its name (originally Pompaelo, later Pamplona). The city was an important pilgrimage destination on the Camino de Santiago from France.

B D

Tue 17 May Pamplona

Join Brian for a morning talk about El Camino de Santiago – Europe's most famous pilgrimage trail – its history, legends and heritage (including the Running of the Bulls in Pamplona).

Later, enjoy a walking tour of Pamplona's Old Quarter, followed by a visit to the city's main Cathedral standing on a rise just inside the city ramparts, amid a dark thicket of narrow streets. The Cathedral is a late-medieval Gothic gem with a neoclassical facade (an 18th-century addition).

Afternoon at leisure in Pamplona.

You may wish to visit the Museo de Navarra (optional). Housed in a former medieval hospital, this superb museum has an eclectic collection of archaeological finds (including a number of outstanding Roman mosaics unearthed mainly in southern Navarra), as well as a selection of art, including Goya's distinguished portrait of the Marqués de San Adrián, from the year 1804. B

Wed 18 May Pamplona – San Sebastián – Bilbao

Depart Pamplona this morning for Bilbao, via the lively resort of San Sebastián, on the shores of the Bay of Biscay. The city is famous for its gastronomy; enjoy a special lunch at the renowned Restaurant Ni Neu.

After lunch complete the journey to Bilbao, the capital of the Spanish province of Biscay. Bilbao was founded in the early 14th century and became a significant commercial centre with trade based on the export of iron ore extracted from the Biscayan quarries.

Today, Bilbao is experiencing an ongoing social, economic, and aesthetic renewal process, kick-started by the spectacular Guggenheim Museum designed by Frank Gehry, and opened by King Juan Carlos I in 1997. B GI

Thu 19 May Bilbao

Morning orientation coach tour of the city. Drive to the mouth of the River Nervión to see the famous 1893 "Vizcaya" (Hanging) Bridge and, upon return to the city centre, see many bridges which span the banks of the river, including a later suspension bridge next to the Guggenheim Museum which opened in 1972, but was redesigned by French conceptual artist Daniel Buren in 2007.

Leave the coach for a walking tour of the city centre to discover Bilbao's rich variety of architectural styles, ranging from Gothic to contemporary.

Vista de la Basílica, Zaragoza

Plaza del Castillo, Pamplona

Following lunch (at leisure), visit the city's Museo de Bellas Artes, which has a fascinating collection of old master paintings, Spanish impressionists, and modern and contemporary Basque art. B

Fri 20 May Bilbao

Join Brian for an early morning talk about the Basques, Bilbao, the Guggenheim dynasty and Guggenheim Museum.

This morning visit Bilbao's celebrated Guggenheim Museum, designed by acclaimed Canadian – American architect Frank Gehry. Rising from the banks of the Nervión behind stunning sails of titanium, the museum has emphatically put the city on Europe's cultural map. The museum has an impressive contemporary sculpture collection and presents spectacular contemporary art exhibitions.

Enjoy lunch at the Guggenheim Museum's famous Nerua Restaurant (I Hat).

Afternoon at leisure to stay in the museum or continue your exploration of Bilbao. B GL

Sat 21 May Bilbao – Oviedo – León

Depart for León. En route to León we visit the historic city of Oviedo, former capital of the Kingdom of Asturias (722-910). The Christian kingdom survived the period of Moorish hegemony to become the spearhead of the Christian Reconquista in the late Middle Ages. Oviedo was an important station for many Camino pilgrims taking the coastal Camino de Santiago.

Oviedo is a treasure trove for important religious architecture, with a historic cathedral, early Asturian churches, monasteries and Christian shrines, some of which date back to the 9th century. View the churches of San Julián de los Prados.

Check into the historic Parador 'Hostal San Marcos'. Originally a monastery, it was founded in the 12th century to provide lodgings for pilgrims travelling to Santiago de Compostela. This is one of the most interesting Renaissance buildings in Spain. The many exterior carvings depicting religious and historical events across the 100 metre long facade are worthy of note. B D

Sun 22 May León

Join Brian for a morning talk about León, the Reconquista and Spanish Inquisition.

Morning visit to León Cathedral, a fine example of soaring Gothic 13th century architecture, renowned for its magnificent stained glass windows. Also visit the Romanesque Church of San Isidore, built into the Roman walls which encircle the old city.

After lunch (at leisure) travel to the historic town of Astorga, once the location of strategic cross-roads for several major pilgrimage routes. Enjoy a short walk (2.5km) on a picturesque section of the Camino (optional) before entering the township. In Astorga see the fine Gothic Cathedral (15th century) and Antoni Gaudi's neo-Gothic masterpiece, the Bishops Palace, located next door to the Cathedral. B D

Mon 23 May León – Santiago de Compostela

This morning depart León by coach for Santiago de Compostela (350 km/approx. 4-5 h)

Afternoon arrival and check-in to your hotel, the splendid Parador 'Hostal Dos Reis Catolicus'. The Hostal is adjacent to the monumental Cathedral of Santiago, located on Obradoiro Square, and originated as a royal hospital in 1499. It continues this age-old practice today and is reputed to be the oldest hotel in the world. B D

Tue 24 May Santiago de Compostela

After breakfast join Brian in the 'Sacrista Alta' Hostal for a talk about St James, the Cathedral of Santiago, the pilgrims destination and the old town of Santiago de Compostela, a Unesco World Heritage Site.

Following the talk begin your exploration of Santiago with a local guide on a walking tour of the historic centre of Santiago de Compostela, including Obradoiro Square, the Renaissance cloister of the University, Plaza de Platerias, the Holy Gate, Azabacheria, the Cathedral of Santiago, and the church museum and monastery of San Martín.

Finish with the Pilgrim's Mass, officiated every day at the high altar of the Cathedral of Santiago at 12.00 noon.
